

Lesson 28

Reading: Jer 24-27

1. What major event occurs at the opening of Jeremiah 24? What is the year for this event?
2. If there are three waves of invasion, why do you think the second one is given as the starting point for the captivity?
3. What does the vision of the figs tell us about the inhabitants of Jerusalem?
4. What do we learn about the character of the people during the time of Josiah (Ch. 25)
5. Thought question: Why would God punish Babylon, the nation he sent to punish Israel's wickedness (25:26,27)?
6. What was God willing to do if they repented (26:1-6)? Was God willing to violate his prophecy?
7. What do we learn about people in Jerusalem that can be a comfort to us in our time (Jer 26:16-24)
8. Identify the successors of Nebuchadnezzar. Does history contradict the bible? Explain
9. What is amazing that God preserved for 70 years and two empires (Babylon and Persia)?